

Red Oak Reads Road Trip

Hey Hawks!

Are you ready to embark on an exciting literary adventure this summer? Get ready to fuel your imagination and explore new worlds with our Red Oak Reads Road Trip Challenge! Whether you're lounging on the beach, camping in the great outdoors, or simply relaxing at home, let your imagination soar as you embark on this literary exploration. Let's make this summer one to remember - one filled with unforgettable stories, inspiring characters, and endless possibilities.

Read like an American explorer! Plan your road trip with these states in mind!

Color in a state below everytime you finish an activity!

Red Oak Reads Road Trip Activities

Read a book that is set in that state.	Read a book written by an author from that state.	Read a book that mentions a famous landmark or event from that state.	Read a book while traveling through or to that state.
Read a book chosen by a parent, friend, or family member.	Read a book you have been putting	Read your parent's favorite children's book.	Read without being asked.
Read a book while eating a snack.	Read a book while sitting by the pool.	Reread a book you have already read.	Read a recipe and make it.
Read an informational book.	Read a fictional book.	Read a graphic novel.	Read a biography.
Read directions for a hobby or activity and do it.	Read a book, blog, or article to plan a trip.	Read a book because you like the cover.	Read a book that is part of a series.

Directions: When you finish an activity, color in a state on the map.